

Michelle Bone Woods

Michelle, is a 38 year old married lesbian. She is a philanthropist, activist, and advocate for SWFL's SAGA LGBT community. Michelle began her love for the art of the female illusion at the age of 15, where she was the dresser and assistant to queens that performed at what was formerly known as Stiletto's in Inkster, Michigan. As a lover of everything drag and former male illusionist, known as Casanova. Michelle owned Pulse Bar (Port Charlotte) and Masquerades Bar and Cabaret. Michelle is the proud owner and national Promoter of the National Bearded Empress/Emperor Pageantry System.

Michelle, works for and a nonprofit organization working with autistic children; fighting for the rights of those who developmental disabilities and assists in government committees to change laws at local, state, and federal levels. As a passionate advocate, she also is the founder of SWFL's SAGA/ LGBT group that helps LGBT YOUTH AND SENIORS in need and encourages true inclusion. In her free time, she judges children's beauty pageants, and social media and nightclubs watching for incredible drag talent.